ROLES WE FILL

Welders and fabricators: MIG/MAG, TIG and MMA welders, pipe welders, steel fabricators

Fitters and electricians: Pipe fitters, mechanical fitters, industrial and building electricians

Construction workers: Steel fixers, formwork carpenters, masons, scaffolders, general construction workers

Machine and CNC operators: CNC operators, machine operators, assemblers, food-processing and packaging workers

Warehouse and logistics workers: Pickers and packers, forklift and reach-truck drivers, loaders, inventory staff

Hospitality staff: Chefs and cooks, kitchen helpers, hotel housekeeping, cleaners

PROCESS

1. Send the request (Day 1) Trade, headcount, location, start date, pay and housing. One call or one form.

2. Shortlist (Within days) Pre-screened profiles of people who already hold an EU residence permit, documents checked.

3. Interviews (Week 1 to 2) Video or in person. Only the people you approve go further.

4. Work authorisation (Depends on the country) You or your agency apply for the local permit; we prepare each worker's documents and keep the process moving.

5. First shift (Start date) We coordinate travel and stay in touch through the first weeks.

THE WORK PERMIT, PLAINLY

A residence permit from one EU country usually does not give the right to work in another. The employer, or its licensed agency, applies for the local work permit; we prepare every worker's documents.

Countries: Austria, Belgium, Slovakia, Lithuania, Latvia. Outside the EU: Albania and Armenia. We cover the permit steps for your country and role on the first call.

WHAT WE CHECK

- Passport or national ID
- EU residence permit: type, issuing country and expiry date
- Trade certificates and licences (welding, forklift, food hygiene)
- Work history, with references from previous employers in Europe
- Language level for the site (English or local)

FOR RECRUITMENT AGENCIES

White-label profiles you present as your own. A fixed partner fee per worker, invoiced on start; you set your client price and keep the margin. We never contact your client.
